

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

January 4, 2026

Second Sunday of Christmas

We Gather in God's Name . . .

PRELUDE

PRAYER OF PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

Gracious Lord, clear a path through the tensile and dust of Christmas and lead us into this new year with hope. Regardless of how we wander and wonder which direction we should take in the days ahead of us, enlighten the eyes of our hearts with your truth that we may find comfort in your Word this morning, sharing praises and song with this our Christian family. Amen.

Change my heart, O God, May I be like you.

Those of us who have much embrace from our abundance those who have little. Those of us who have little give with joy for others to receive what we can offer. PASTORAL PRAYER AND LORD'S PRAYER

One: Lord in your mercy,

All: hear our prayer.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

*COMMUNION HYMN

“Come, Share the Lord”

INVITATION TO THE LORD'S SUPPER

GREAT THANKSGIVING

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise

One: ... Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with choirs of angels, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all the faithful of every time and place, who forever sing to the glory of your name:

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

One: ... Remembering all your mighty and merciful acts, we take this bread and this wine from the gifts you have given us and celebrate with joy the redemption won for us in Jesus Christ. Accept our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving as a living and holy offering of ourselves, that our lives may proclaim the one crucified and risen. Great is the mystery of faith:

All: Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

One: ... Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor are yours, almighty Father, now and forever. Amen.

POSTLUDE

The Upper Room

"From Fear To Faith"

Sunday, January 4, 2026

Read Colossians 1: 15-17

"By him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible."

--Colossians 1:16 (KJV)

Shortly after our daughter was born, while my husband was holding her and offering her a bottle, the nurse noticed that our baby was struggling to breathe. Pushing my husband aside, the care team quickly surrounded out tiny baby who was in distress and admitted her to the NICU.

Later, after visiting her, I left the hospital with a heavy heart and racing thoughts. I felt helpless as a mother. As I was driving away from the hospital, looking straight ahead, I had an unobstructed view of the glistening sea and the beautiful blue sky. In that moment, I was keenly aware of God's Spirit, assuring me that God is the Creator of all things. Surely I could trust God to take care of my daughter, whom God had also created.

My heart lifted, and my worries turned to praise for the God who knows me, sees me, and cares for me. God's presence with me strengthened my heart and shored up my faith. Even now, 40 years later, when we celebrate our daughter's birthday, I still recall that day. And I praise God all over again for being with me and with her that day and every day.

Prayer: "Dear heavenly Father, thank you for knowing us and for being with us always." Amen.

--Amy C. (Virginia, USA)

Thought for the Day:

"I am known, seen, and cared for by God."
